Tailored for Women: New LOMSEN jacket and BORGVIK pants

- Tailored for female rider
- Waterproof and breathable, offered at a sensational price point
- Includes a 3-year warranty

(Mustasaari, Finland, April 10th, 2024) Swedish heritage brand Lindstrands presents its 2024 collection, featuring a diverse range of garments tailored specifically for female riders. Among the highlights are the new LOMSEN Jacket and BORGVIK Pants.

The LOMSEN WOMAN is a mid-length touring jacket available in black with silver highlights. Packed with features including ventilation on the chest and back (utilizing an "open back" design), a detachable thermo-lining vest, DRYWAY drop-liner membrane, adjustable waist, and CE AA certification, all offered at €189.

Complementing the jacket are the BORGVIK PANTS WOMAN. These trousers boast two cargo pockets, a detachable thermo-lining, DRYWAY drop-liner membrane, adjustable waist, and CE AA certification, available in regular D-sizes and priced at €179.

Crafted with innovative all-weather technology and designed for adventure, both the jackets and pants offer a waterproof and breathable construction featuring 600D HI-TENACITY PE WEAVE. They come equipped with a range of technical features including adjustable pockets, CE-certified level 1 protectors, air vents on the chest and back, and a long connection zipper for added convenience and safety.

Available in a wide size range from 34 to 50 for jackets and 34 to 48/D20-D25 for pants, these products provide the perfect blend of comfort, functionality, and security for female riders.
